

Functional Requirements

1. System should manage orders & products
2. System shall check that there is no duplication
3. System should check the availability of each item
4. System shall prevent overselling
5. System should calculate how many robots are needed to collect order
6. System should check that robots are doing tasks in the right way
7. System should show a live status to the warehouse operator
8. System should notify operators & customers about important events
9. System should allow customers to browse orders & track their orders

Non-Functional Requirements

1. System should check items with low latency
2. System should be scalable for large community
3. System should be maintainable to be easier to fix any bug
4. System should be reliable with the users